

Hello Christian Traveler!

I am so excited that you are planning your next trip. Traveling is one of the unique blessings that lets us explore God's creation and learn more about Him at the same time.

Deuteronomy 6:4-12 reminds us that in everything we do: sitting, walking, waking up, etc. we should talk about God's Word. Our faith is a conversation that revolves around everything we do, including our travel.

But how do we even begin to recognize God in our travels? Let alone how do we talk about Him with others?

This workbook will help you answer both of those questions by walking you through the process of recognizing and communicating the many wonderous works that God is doing – before – during – and after your trip– while also giving you the tools to effectively plan & execute your next trip.

You will learn how to budget, make travel decisions, keep track of your travel experiences, share your travel testimony, and more. No matter where you are at in your travels, we encourage you to jump in and recognize God's handiwork!

God's Blessings,

The Christian Travelers' Network

Before The Trip (6 + Months)

And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth. Genesis 1:28, ESV

Prayer

Preparing for a trip is an incredibly exciting adventure, but before the journey begins it is important to prepare our hearts and minds for God's plans.

Before The Trip Prayer

Dear Lord,

Please bless my preparations for my upcoming travels.

Use this trip to help me be more aware of your loving presence.

Teach me to see your protecting hand and to be aware of your direction.

Help me to see your children, that I meet along the way, with the same love and empathy you have for them.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Your Christian Travel Support Team

Esther 4:12-17 reminds us that it is important for people to be around us praying for us. Being a part of a team means that we also have a role, thus we must be willing to acknowledge that we may be traveling in God's kingdom "for such a time as this.

Prayer For A Supportive Christian Team & Direction

Dear Lord,

As I prepare for the upcoming journey: Please surround me with amazing people who will pray for my travels. Give me the wisdom to recognize how you are calling me to serve and support others in your name. Show me where you are calling me to go, even if it differs from my plans.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

As you prepare for your journey, keep track of how God answers this prayer below. Feel free to reach out to the Christian Travelers' Network on Facebook and Instagram to let us know how we can be praying for your upcoming travels. Remember, He may even answer some of these prayers while you are traveling.

Assessing Your Travel Motives

Because we are human we often have sinful motives for choosing to travel. We want to benefit ourselves rather than acknowledge that this may be an opportunity for God to use our gifts in a unique way.

Prayer For Travel Motives

Dear Lord,

As I prepare for travel, please reveal to me where my motives for my travels are coming from. Speak your Word into my life to show me what your truth and purpose is for me.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

After you pray this prayer, look at the list of motives on the next page and mark which ones stand out to you. Then read the Bible Verses and mark which ones God reveals to be your self-serving motives.

Journal below it what truth God wants to remind you of and what His purpose for your travels might look like compared to what you intended. (This could mean anything from not traveling at this time, to going to a different destination, to being more thankful that you get to travel, or so many other things!)

My Purposes For Travel & God's Truth

- Figure out who I really am (1 Peter 2:9)
- Take a break from life's stresses (John 14:27)
- Prove that I'm free spirited and independent
(Galatians 1:10)
- Be joyful and happy (James 1:2-4)
- I have money and time so why not? (1 Tim 6:17-19)
- Other: _____ (Matt 28:18-20)

Journal Entry

The verse(s) God gave me for my self-serving travel motives were:

Assessing Your Destination Options

As you are giving your travel to God, it is also important to give Him the destination as well. Often times it can be very clear where our time is best spent on a trip but asking God to lead the thought process is just as important.

Prayer for Guidance While Choosing Your Destination

Dear Lord,

I ask that you give the wisdom to assess the place I'd like to go, the people I would like to visit, and the budget I have. Please make me aware of anything or anyone that was not on my initial radar that I should consider

Help me to make a wise decision with this information and trust that you are in control even if plans change.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Fill out the squares on the next two pages as you consider all the potential places you could travel to.

Choosing Your Travel Companions

If you have the freedom to choose who you are traveling with (ie. They aren't family) make sure to think about what Christ-like characteristics you want in a travel companion and choose wisely. Fill out the following bubbles. Note: Some of these you may want to come back to during your trip.

Prayers For My Travel Companions:

Prayers For Travel Companions I Might Meet On My Trip:

Some of your destinations will be influenced by the others who will be traveling with you or that you might meet along the way. Take some time to pray for your travel companions and add their destination options to your list (previous section).

Prayer For Travel Companions Before You Go

Dear Lord,

I pray that (insert names) and I will have a joyful trip that will be glorifying to you. Give us both patience to work with one another through the stresses of travel, time to be rejuvenated in your Word, and the ability to recognize your handiwork in the whole journey.

Also bless the people that we will encounter along the way. May they know we are Christians by our actions.

Give us the opportunity, and the words, to share you with the people we meet.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Figuring Out Your Budget

Now it is time to begin to figure out what the estimated cost of traveling to these places might be. This does not have to be an exact amount, but rather a ballpark number. (You are not making any reservations yet, so this is your chance to dream up a variety of trips and see their estimated initial cost.)

*Another option would be to call Christian Travelers' Network to create a quote/estimate for your dream trip. NOTE: Prices are subject to change based on booking date.

God calls us to be good stewards of our money, so picking the most expensive trip and taking off tomorrow might not be a financially wise decision. An expensive trip is do-able, but you must be willing to wait and save the allotted money. Now is the time for you to use this wisdom to determine which of these options should be prioritized, fit in your budget & time frame, and aligns with God's calling for you.

The best way to determine what it will take to reach your financial goals is to compare a number of financial goals. The chart below is a great example. This person is looking at going to Cancun for \$5000, but has different amounts already saved up which they subtracted from the \$5000. In line one they decided they could save \$500 a month by not going to Starbucks, eating at home, and canceling their Netflix subscription. ($\text{Cost} \div \text{Monthly savings} =$ the total number of months it would take for them to save that amount.)

In the second line they set their goal of \$5000 and determined that they wanted to have it saved in 12 months which means ($\text{Cost} \div \text{total number of months} =$ how much to save each month to reach their goal.)

	Cost	Monthly Saving	Total Months
Destination: Cancun -No Starbucks -Eat at home - Cancel Netflix	$5000 - 1500 =$ $3500	500	7 months
	$5000 - 0 =$ $5000	$416.67	12

Use the chart on the next page to determine how you will be a good steward of your money and save for your trip.

Once you have determined the total amount you want to save and how many months it would take you to save for these trips, prayerfully pick the options that you will aim for

If you have a travel companion going with you, this will adjust part of the chart. Divide the cost in column one by number of travelers before calculating the other columns, so that the monthly savings reflects each individual's budget.*

Congratulations on making your travel decision! Write down those details below, so you can refer back to it later.

Prayer For Travel Budget

Dear Lord,

Thank you for helping me begin to plan my trip to (insert destination name). Please help me to be a good steward of the money you provide. Help me to use it in a way that honors you and sticks to my budget.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Booking Your Trip Within Your Budget

You did some preliminary research to determine your general budget a few months ago, but now it is time to plan for your destination what you will be doing. This involves prayer.

Prayer For Booking Travel

Dear Lord,

Before I go to (insert destination name) I am lining up some options (accommodations, activities, etc.) . Help me to be flexible so that if you need to change my plans for the people I encounter or the opportunities you provide, that I may able and willing to move from my original schedule to follow your lead.

Please help me to stay within my budget as I make these decisions and if you lead me a different way, please provide the resources I need to make those adjustments.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Now, it's time to begin making those booking! If you are making a deposit on a trip you are booking with the help of Christian Travelers' Network, copy prices into the following sheet. If you are purchasing flights, bus tickets, accommodations, etc. yourself, transfer that data into the following chart.

Packing

One of the hardest things about packing is deciding what to bring and what to leave at home. Jesus sent the disciples to go witness about him with only the clothes on their backs and a staff. Is it wise to travel that minimally and trust God with the rest? Or should we use the wisdom God gave us and pack accordingly? I believe that somewhere between those two options is a place that puts our trust in God and the wisdom he gives us. After all, our conscience knows when we have over or under packed in an attempt to put the trust in ourselves instead of him.

With prayer and preparation, we can trust God to provide what we didn't pack and to use the things we did bring for His glory.

Prayer For The Packing Process

Dear Lord,

You have blessed with many material things, along with the funds for this trip. Grant me the wisdom to pack the necessities, the awareness to use my possessions to help others, and the trust that you will provide me with what I do not pack. Please put the people in front of me who can help me grow my trust in you. Bless those conversations, that they may be for your glory.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Now it's time to make that packing list! I'm going to go ahead and put the first item on your list: a Bible! I know that many of us have Bibles on our phones but having a physical book you open clearly states that you have something you believe in that matters to you. It also opens a gateway for conversation and can be an item that is passed on if you meet someone who could benefit from it. The rest of the list is extensive, so go ahead and narrow it down as the Lord leads.

If you are traveling to a country where Bibles are banned, bring a Bible at your own discretion.*

If you are flying, all liquid and gel items must be in containers 3oz or less to meet TSA requirements.*

Packing tip: Roll your clothing! There are plenty of videos out there on how to roll your clothing, but to save even more room, put them into gallon zip loc baggies and squeeze out the air (like a vacuum seal) it will save you space

Packing tip: If you tend to overpack, pick a smaller piece of luggage. You can always purchase items where you are going if necessary. A good rule of thumb for 2 week of travel, to be minimal, is to pack 4 or 5 tops and 4 bottoms that can be mixed and. You can always do laundry!

Packing tip: If you are flying, remember that your carry-on is only allowed to have 1 quart size bag filled with 3oz liquids and gels.

Spiritual Preparation

Before you even begin your trip, it is important to plan how you will spend time with God on your trip. Will you still be finding a church to worship at? Will you attend a group Bible study? Will you set aside a specific each time for personal study?

What about right now? What habits are you forming as you prepare for the trip? Having a plan gives you a goal to strive for on your trip.

God Time

I'm forming habits right now by:

To spend time with God during the trip, my plan is to:

During The Trip

"All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:18-20, ESV

Beginning The Adventure

As you begin your travels, it is important to ask for God's guidance and protection.

Prayer For Safe Travels

Dear Lord,

As I begin traveling, I ask that you get me safely to and from my destination. Along the way, when things do not go as planned, help me to patiently see the situation through your eyes. Show me how to connect with others and rest in your perfect timing.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

As you travel each day, it is important to document events. Writing down the good, bad, and mundane allows us to look back and see God's handiwork. Now that you are on your journey, set aside 10 minutes each day to write about your adventures. This will come in handy for your travel testimony when you return home.

Note: The very last page of journal entries has a place to keep track of your spending so you can stay on budget.

Returning Home

"Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. "And when the Lord your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—with great and good cities that you did not build, and houses full of all good things that you did not fill, and cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant—and when you eat and are full, then take care lest you forget the Lord, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 6:4-12 ESV

Reflecting on God's Handiwork

Returning home can be both joyful and hard. As you go home use these tools to help prepare your heart and conversations for the trip back.

As you journey back this is a great time to reflect on the trip. Go ahead and reread some of your pre-trip and during trip entries. What were your motivations going into this trip? Did God change it? Did He give you new goals? What were some of the highlights? In the area below write down some of the ways that you saw God in your journey. Remember, God was in the good, bad, and mundane and it is okay to be honest about that.

Prayer For Returning Home

Dear Lord,

Thank you for each day that you gave me on this journey. Thank you for protecting me, guiding me, and teach me along the way. As I get ready to head home, please help me to remember these places with grace, and give me peace as I return home.

Continue to protect me in my travels, keep me ware of your presence, and reveal the needs of those around me.

In your name I pray.

Amen.

Preparing Your Travel Testimony

When you get home, people are going to ask you how your trip was. You could say “fine” or “great.” You could say the best part was... But think of this as an opportunity to witness to them about the Creator. Take all the things you wrote above and turn it into an elevator speech (something you could tell them in 20-30 seconds on an elevator) that sums up your experience. Aim for about 3 sentences that gives them a snippet of your trip and God’s role in it. Remember, if they ask questions – then you can always elaborate further on the trip and about God!

Travel Testimony Elevator Speech

3-4 Sentences summarizing my experience and God’s Handiwork:

After The Trip

Sing to the LORD, all the earth! Tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples! For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and he is to be held in awe above all gods.

For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place. 1 Chronicles 16:23-27 ESV

Prayer

Now that you are back it is time to give God your “how was your trip?” and your next trip!

Prayer After Your Trip

Dear Lord,

Thank you for this trip. Specifically _____. Please open the door for me to share my faith when people ask me about my trip. Help me to share my travel stories in a way that glorifies you.

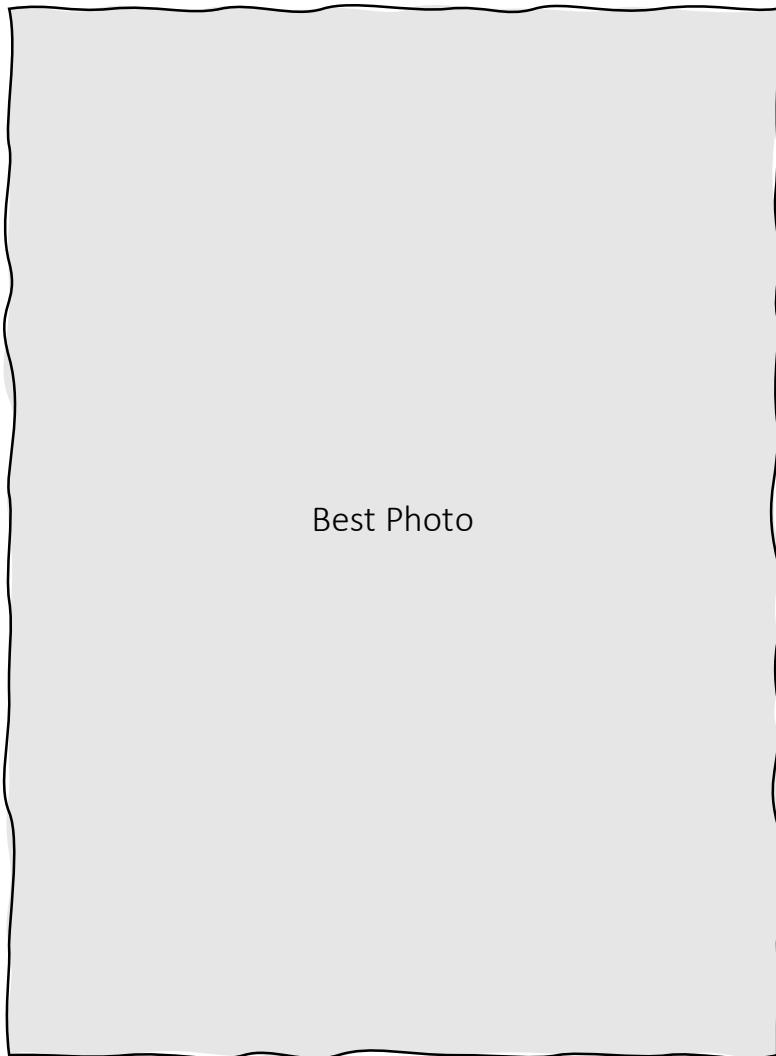

As I look to future travels, lead me where you want me to go.

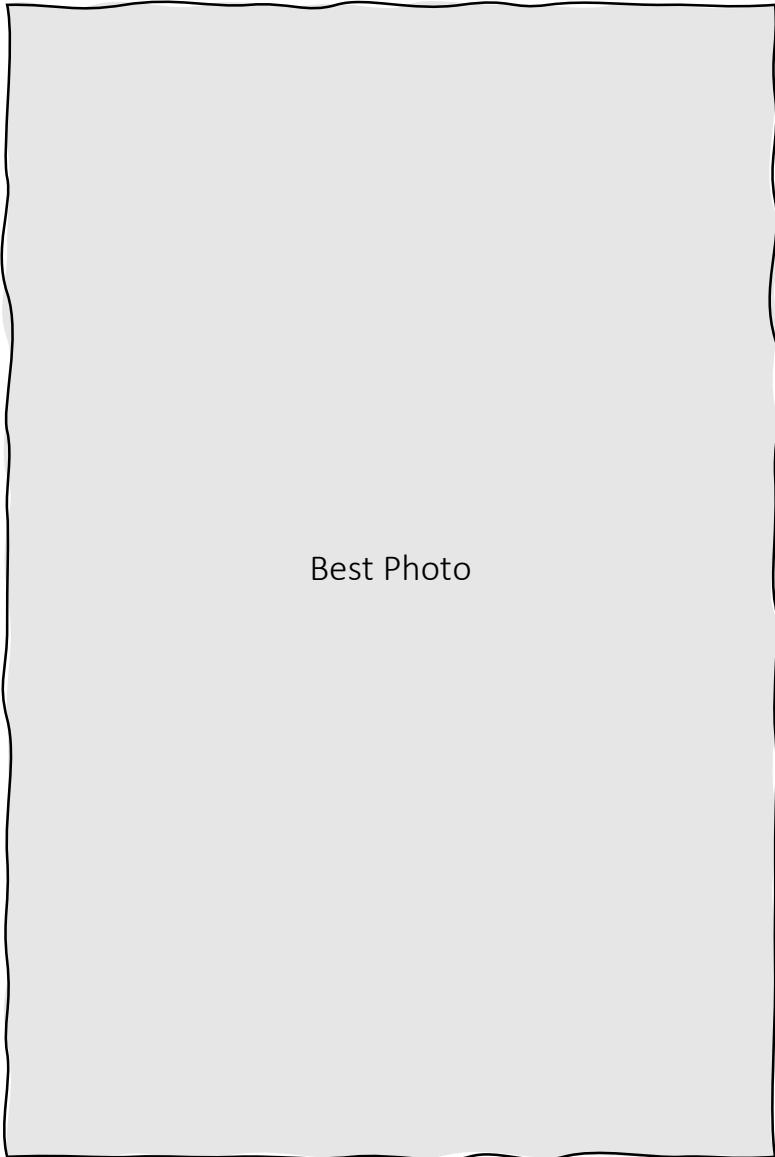

In your name I pray.

Amen.

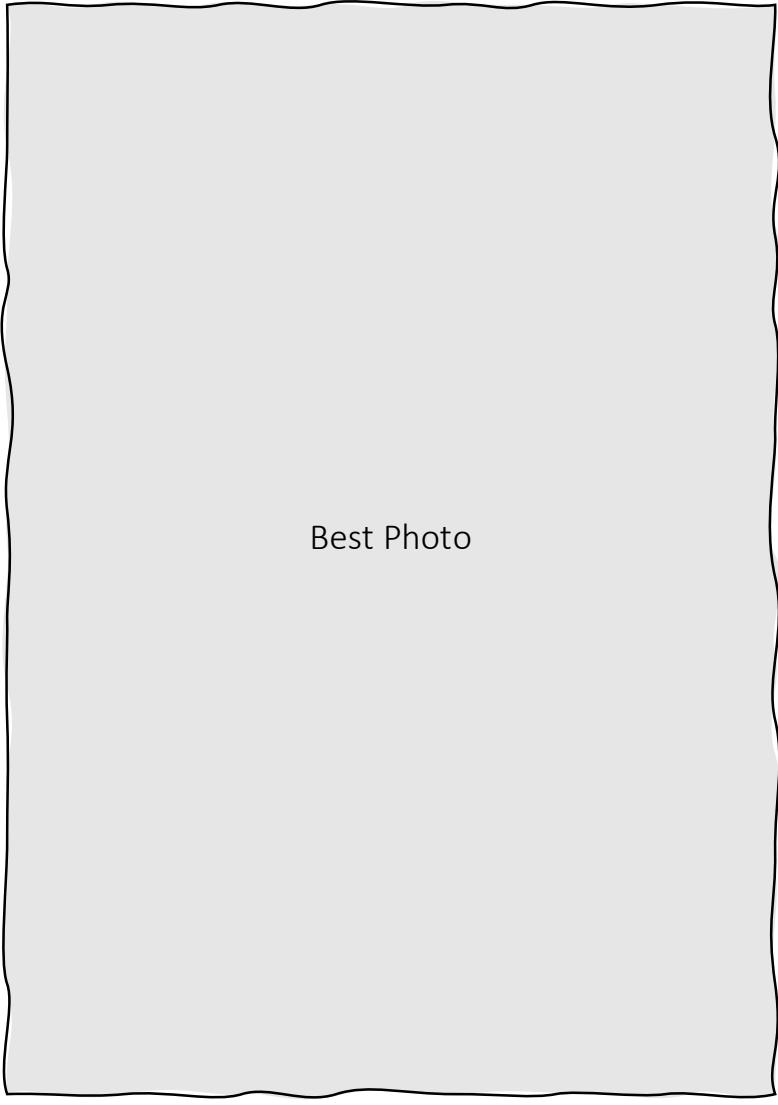

Social Media & God's Story

Now, you will likely share some of these stories on social media. One of the joys of waiting until the end of trip to post about your trip is that you can summarize God's work throughout the whole trip. In fact, you can use your elevator speech to summarize your experience and proclaim Christ in a nonintrusive way. So pick out some pictures and post! P.S. when you share those posts don't forget to tag Christian Travelers' Network on Facebook and Instagram!

Keeping Record of Your Travel Testimony

Don't forget to record information about times when you had the opportunity to give your travel testimony. Remember, it's okay to leave it short. If they have questions they will ask you at the time when God opens that door. In the meantime, note those conversations as watered seeds.
